D.J. Sokol Arena Inside the Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center

The Ryan and Sokol families were honored during the dedication of the facility at intermission of the Creighton vs. Texas Tech volleyball match on Aug. 28, 2009.

Wayne and Eileen Ryan pose with Billy Bluejay at the groundbreaking for the Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center and D.J. Sokol Arena.

Thanks to the generous donations of Wayne and Eileen Ryan and family and Dave and Peggy Sokol, and many others, D.J. Sokol Arena inside the Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center was dedicated on Aug. 28, 2009.

The 75,000-square-foot facility houses a gymnasium holding 2,500 fans, as well as coaches' offices and locker rooms for women's basketball, volleyball, men's soccer, women's soccer, baseball and softball. It also houses areas for ticketing, athletic training, meeting rooms, media workrooms, hospitality functions and additional academic space. The arena is also being used for other campus and community events, including assemblies, coaching camps and clinics, concerts, speakers and high school graduations.

Wayne and Eileen Ryan and their family have been long-time supporters of Creighton University. Wayne Ryan, BS'49, MS'51, chairman and CEO of Streck Laboratories, Inc., began his career teaching at Creighton before pursuing his passion for research that led to the founding of his company. The Ryans are also Jaybackers and their daughter, Connie, serves on Creighton's Board of Directors.

D.J. Sokol

Dave and Peggy Sokol are honoring their son, D.J. Sokol, who died in 1999 following a battle with Hodgkin's disease, by naming the gymnasium the D.J. Sokol Arena. Sokol is a former chairman and CEO of MidAmerican Energy Holdings Company, a global leader in the production, supply and distribution of energy from diversified fuel sources and recently served on Creighton University's Board of Directors.

"We have been searching to find a more suitable venue for women's basketball and volleyball competitions for some time," said Creighton athletics director Bruce Rasmussen. "Visionary donors like the Ryans and Sokols make our dreams of an even stronger athletics program, championed by intensely loyal fans, more of a reality. This Bluejay spirit is a unifying characteristic that enhances the institution's visibility and reputation."

The facility was fully funded by private monies and is home to Bluejay volleyball and women's basketball.

A packed student section regularly fills the north end of D.J. Sokol Arena inside the Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center.

Home Venue History

For the third straight season, Creighton will play all of its home volleyball matches on campus at D.J. Sokol Arena in the Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center.

More than 182,000 bricks, 654 tons of steel and 30 miles of electrical wire were used during construction, which employed up to 115 workers at one time.

The height of the roof ridge is 78'-10" above the arena floor, with a ceiling fan measuring 20 feet in diameter spinning high above the playing surface.

In addition to a larger locker room and team lounge at D.J. Sokol Arena, Creighton's volleyball program also benefits from coaching offices, a weight room and athletic training rooms in the Ryan Athletic Center. The Ryan Athletic Center also houses the offices for much of Creighton's support staff, including ticketing, marketing and sports information. The school also uses a Sport Court surface for its volleyball matches and practices.

Omaha, Nebraska

Think of Omaha as center court: a dynamic and unique destination in the center of the country, full of action. Omaha has this special spirit that fills the city like an arena full of fans whose team just won with a buzzer beater. Excitement abounds for what it has built, what it has accomplished and what's still ahead.

It's a spirit born on the banks of the Missouri River, a city founded in 1854 by land speculators convinced they were at the heart of something new. Soon after, the transcontinental railroad was built and Omaha emerged as a hotbed of activity and new technologies.

There is a great story about Omaha's growth in the early days that really speaks to the pioneering spirit of the city. As Omaha prepared to lay underground cables for telephones, workers were trying to figure out the easiest way to string the lines. Being an inventive bunch, Omahans solved the problem by getting ferrets to help carry the lines through the tunnels. Sounds extraordinary, but it worked. Today, Omaha is at the center of the telecommunications industry. Call for a hotel reservation from anywhere in the U.S. and you are probably calling Omaha. The city is home to the Hyatt, Marriott, Radisson, and Omni reservation centers. That infrastructure is also key to the nation's defense. Offutt Air Force Base, home to STRATCOM, is based here. STRATCOM is the nation's eyes, ears and muscle when it comes to protecting the country.

That spirit is also seen in Omaha's modern day pioneers. Warren Buffett, one of the wealthiest men in the world, is a plainspoken Omaha-born and bred financial pioneer. When Warren speaks, people listen, learn and make money. In fact, as you look at the five

A view of the Omaha skyline at night. More than 800,000 people live in metro Omaha, and about 1.2 million people live within a 50-mile radius.

Fortune 500 companies that call Omaha home, they are all innovators: Berkshire Hathaway, Union Pacific, ConAgra Foods, Mutual of Omaha and Peter Kiewit Sons'.

It's not just the business community that embodies that spirit; you can also listen to it, touch it, taste it and feel it when you visit Omaha.

Home to the world's largest indoor rainforest, next to the world's largest indoor desert under the world's largest geodesic dome, Omaha's Henry Doorly Zoo is a can't miss when you're in town. Experience what it's like to go underground and see rare creatures that only come out at night, or surround yourself with sharks as you walk through an 850,000-gallon underwater tunnel. Talk about innovative: The zoo just spent $6 million on a research facility allowing it to respond to national and international conservation needs.

Omaha's three Smithsonian-affiliated museums offer a diverse cross section of art. Gaze at a 15,000-pound glass sculpture suspended in the air at the Joslyn Art Museum, hop on board Harry S. Truman's press train at the Durham Museum, or "pilot" a fighter jet at the Strategic Air and Space Museum, home to some of the most prized and rarely displayed military aircraft. Discover how nature can seem brand new as you walk through over 100 acres of lush and rare flora at Lauritzen Gardens, Omaha's botanical center.

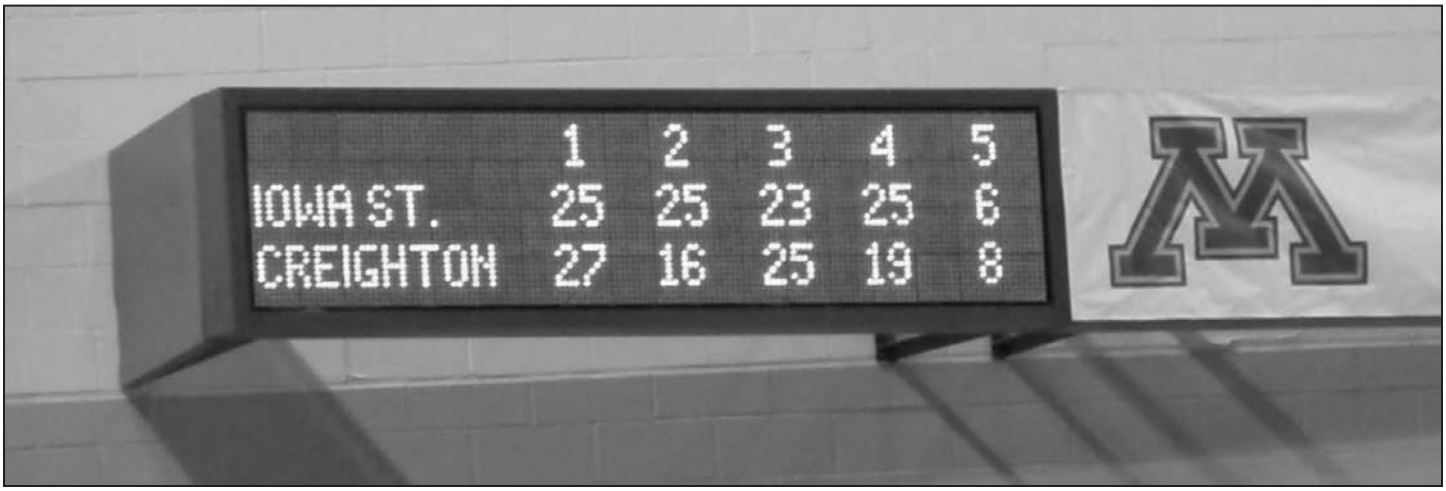
Omaha is a mecca to music pioneers, as the city is known by many as the nation's premier hot spot for the indie rock scene. It's home to famed Saddle Creek Records and nationally renowned bands such as Bright Eyes, The Faint and Cursive.

Omaha is a city that never forgets its past. The Old Market is the true merging of old and new. The historic warehouse district was preserved and transformed into the city's art, shopping and dining district. Unique shops and restaurants lining cobblestone streets, it's a place to remember where you've been and where you're going.

The Bob Kerrey Pedestrian Bridge S-curves its way across the Missouri River. This one-of-a-kind structure is the longest pedestrian bridge to link two states.

It's just one more example of how Omaha stays fresh and innovative, all thanks to that indelible pioneering spirit.

Omaha and Creighton hosted the College World Series for the 62nd consecutive year in 2011, moving to TD Ameritrade Park Omaha for the first time.



The Creighton-Iowa State match was tense throughout, with the Bluejays consistently able to win the close sets to earn the victory.

One night before beating Iowa State, the Creighton volleyball team posed for a group picture on the floor of the Minnesota Sports Pavilion.

2010 - The Year In Pictures

Creighton took control of the match with a 25-23 victory in the third set over Iowa State.

Dozens of fans, administrators and parents made the six-hour trek from Omaha to Minneapolis to watch Creighton play in the NCAA Tournament.

Savannah Smith (#6) and the rest of her teammates shake hands with Iowa State.

Emily Greisch (2003-06)

Creighton Degree: 2007 in Nursing

"Playing volleyball at Creighton was one of the best decisions that I have ever made. I loved everything that we did together. I loved the practices, the matches, the road trips, and most of all the teammates and friends that I have made throughout my four years.

"I learned so much during my time at Creighton. I got a great education in the classroom and learned many life lessons from the team. I really was able to grow as a person. I have taken so many skills that I learned while playing volleyball into my career as a nurse now. Being a student athlete really helped me to understand being a true team player and it also helped me use time-management skills.

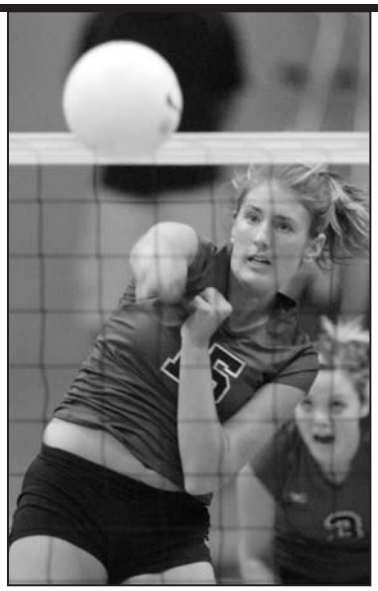
"I am so grateful for the wonderful coaching staff and the lasting friendships with my teammates. I am very excited to have been a part of Creighton volleyball's history and to see the great places the team will go in the future!"

Katie Mehal (2004-07)

Creighton Degree: 2008 in Marketing & Graphic Design

"When I look back at all the decisions I made, my choice to play volleyball for Creighton is by far the one which has influenced me the most. As I look back, I remember all of the practices and matches, but what I value most were the lessons I learned with the family I became a part of.

"As I pushed myself to become a better player, I learned discipline, hard work and perseverance. As I traveled and missed class, I learned responsibility and time-management. And as I grew throughout my four years, I learned that you can learn life skills from things other than volleyball, but the friendships – they last a lifetime."



Leah Ratzlaff (2002-05)

Creighton Degree: 2006 in Psychology

"I had never even heard of Creighton when I was recruited, and now I can't imagine my life without Creighton volleyball. Being part of this program created some of the best memories I will ever have and also introduced me to some amazing people who I know I will be friends with for the rest of my life.

"The team is going to be making some huge strides this season and in the next few years. I'm just glad I'll be able to say I was there to help build the foundation and get it all started.

"I truly feel that playing volleyball has made me the person I am today. Not only did it take some qualities I already had and improve on them, like competitiveness and determination, but being part of this program also helped me develop new skills, like leadership and time-management, that will be equally as valuable in the future."

Bluejays In The Pros

Former Bluejays In The Professional Ranks

Amanda Cvejdlik	Albania	Marin Barleti
Kelly Goc	Albania	Marin Barleti
Nayka Benitez	Puerto Rico	Guaynabo Mets
Bianca Rivera	Puerto Rico	Bayamón Vaqueras
Korie Lebeda	Spain	Voley Murcia

Kelly Goc and Amanda Cvejdlik - Albania

Kelly Goc (#7) spent two seasons with Marin Barleti in Tirana, Albania, where she played for legendary coach Kreshnik Tartari. In 2009, Goc combined with former Bluejay teammate Amanda Cvejdlik (#14) to help win a the Albania Cup.

Bianca Rivera and Nayka Benitez - Puerto Rico

Bianca Rivera's (below) first two years in the Puerto Rico's Women's Superior Volleyball League have been a huge success. Under the direction of Yarelis Rodriguez, the San Juan native was named the league's 2010 Rookie of the Year while playing for the Bayamón Vaqueras. Her team qualified for the postseason and she finished the year ranked third in the league with 5.16 digs per set. She was also third in digs per set at 5.38 in 2011. Rivera participated in the league's 2010 All-Star Game.

Nayka Benitez (left) also played in Puerto Rico, seeing time for the Guaynabo Mets. With her as the libero, her team finished as runner-up for the league title.

Korie Lebeda - Spain

After a record-setting career at Creighton from 2005-08, Korie Lebeda (jersey at left) spent the winter of 2009 in Murcia, Spain, where she played for Voley Murcia in a league called Superliga Feminina 2. The team is located in the southeastern part of Spain about an hour from the Mediterranean Sea.

Lebeda got the call when Voley Murcia's regular setter was injured in November, joining a team that also included players from Spain, Brazil, the Canary Islands and the United States.

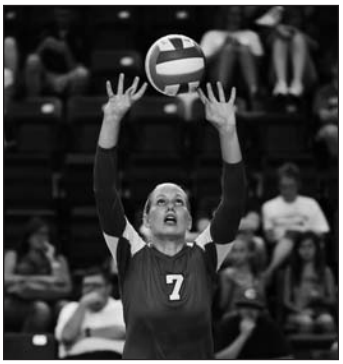
Now that Creighton has knocked down the doors to reach and then win a match in the NCAA Tournament, the future has never been brighter for the Bluejay volleyball program.

Creighton won't be able to sneak up on anyone this season, with 11 letterwinners and four starters back from last year's 21-12 squad. However, the experience of tasting postseason success, after a strong regular-season, should bode well for Kirsten Bernthal Booth and her ninth team at Creighton.

A challenging non-conference schedule, combined with the No. 6 RPI conference in the country, should combine to once again put the Jays in at-large contention should Creighton not win the MVC Tournament at year's end.



Megan Bober

Setters

Junior Megan Bober has started every match the last two seasons while developing into one of the top setters nationally.

Bober was named first-team all-MVC while also earning honorable-mention All-America accolades in 2010, when she averaged 10.26 assists, 1.48 kills and 0.92 blocks per set.

Competing with Bober for the setting spot will be sophomore Brianne Fliss and true freshman Michelle Sicner.

Fliss had 22 assists in limited action backing up Bober last year. Sicner arrives as a highly-touted setter with great size. She was second-team all-state while pacing all Nebraska preps in aces per set last year.

Laurel Sanford

Middle Blockers

Creighton returns all three of its middle blockers from a season ago, while adding freshmen Kelli Browning and Lizzy Stivers to the front line.

Laurel Sanford has proven herself as one of the premier blockers in the nation, as she is one of eight seniors nationally to average at least 1.10 blocks per set each of the past two seasons.

Sanford was second in the conference in blocks in 2010 and last year was named second-team all-MVC. She's also expanded her offense in a big way, averaging 2.47 kills per set while hitting a team-best .262 last fall.

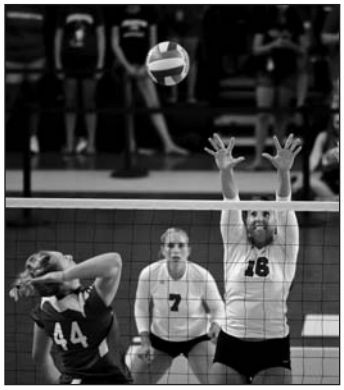
Junior Heather Thorson owns two years of experience and 33 starts to her credit. Thorson played her best down the stretch in 2010, with a career-high 12 kills on .400 hitting in CU's 3-2 win over No. 16 Iowa State in last year's NCAA Tournament victory.

Also back in the middle is sophomore Savannah Smith. Once pegged a redshirt candidate, Smith earned 12 starts last season, amassing 60 kills and 48 blocks.

New to the program are freshmen Browning and Stivers.

Browning won a pair of Wisconsin state titles as a prep at Waukesha Catholic Memorial, where she was named first-team all-state as a senior.

Stivers can play anywhere on the front line and the California native was named conference MVP as a senior at Carmel High.



Karisa Almgren

Outside & Right Side Hitters

Creighton's biggest question mark heading into 2011 will be how to fill the production of outside hitters Alicia Runge (3.73 kps.) and Allie Oelke (2.38 kps., 3.75 dps.) from a season ago.

Karisa Almgren is back after averaging two kills per set last year on the right side. Now a senior, the emotional leader of the team will take on even more of a leadership role.

Savannah Smith saw most of her time in the middle a year ago, but is also a candidate on the right side.

Natalie Hackbarth and Lexi Malm, two sophomores with limited collegiate experience, seek an expanded role in 2011.

Hackbarth had three kills and five digs in five matches in 2010, but produced six kills and 11 digs during an April exhibition against a team of Chinese professionals.

Malm played in three matches without a kill last season, but in high school set a Central City (Neb.) record with 1,026 put-aways.

New to the team are freshmen Leah McNary, Katie Neisler and Lizzy Stivers.

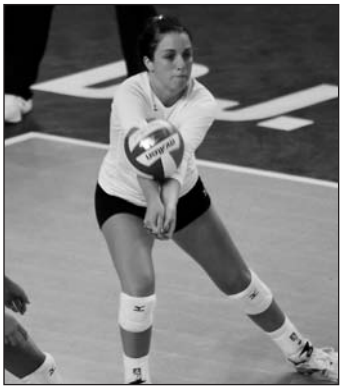
McNary boasts the best vertical leap on the team and could claim an integral role by year's end.

Neisler was first-team all-state in Texas and is also a strong defender, having played libero in the club ranks.

Stivers could split time between any front line position during her debut campaign.



Julianne Mandolfo

Liberos & Defensive Specialists

Julianne Mandolfo and Brooke Boggs return after being key cogs in a Bluejay defense that ranked second nationally in digs per set last fall.

Mandolfo split time between the defensive specialist and libero spots while shattering school freshman records for digs and digs per set en route to earning MVC All-Freshman plaudits. Mandolfo was second in MVC matches with 5.50 digs per set during her rookie campaign.

Boggs is a two-year veteran with 32 starts to her name. She owns 421 career digs and was one of four Creighton players to average more than 2.50 digs per set a season ago.

Two other veterans will have a chance to vie for time in the backcourt, Brianne Fliss and Brittany Moon. Both women were high school setters with strong ball-control skills as well as being adept passers.

Katie Neisler also has a strong defensive background and is a possibility for the back row.

Kirsten Bernthal Booth

The only coach in Creighton's modern volleyball history to reach 100 wins, Kirsten Bernthal Booth enters her ninth season with an even brighter future, thanks to four returning starters, a spectacular on-campus facility and the momentum from last fall's NCAA Tournament bid.

Creighton's 2010 NCAA Tournament run included an inspiring first-round victory over No. 16 Iowa State, and helped the Bluejays earn votes in the year-ending top-25 poll. Add it up, and it quickly becomes evident why Booth was named 2010 National Coach of the Year by Collegiate Volleyball Update.

The at-large berth into the 2010 NCAA Tournament came not long after back-to-back second-place finishes in the Missouri Valley Conference resulted in near-misses to the 2007 and 2008 NCAA Tournaments.

Need another reason that Creighton is a program on the rise? Check out D.J. Sokol Arena inside the Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center. The on-campus facility opened in 2009 to rave reviews and hosted six volleyball matches involving ranked teams in its inaugural year, including Creighton's four-set win over No. 25 Wichita State. Creighton is 19-9 in its first two seasons at the facility, including a 15-3 mark in MVC play.

Booth enters her ninth year as head coach at Creighton with an impressive past, both on and off the court.

Under her direction, the program has attracted two crowds of more than 12,000 while ranking in the top-40 nationally in attendance the past five years.

Creighton has gone 141-101 while averaging 1,134 fans per home match in Booth's tenure, compared to an88-132 mark and 211 fans per match average the eight years before her arrival. All of Booth's teams have qualified for the MVC Tournament, with the last five of those squads reaching the semifinals.

Booth's .583 winning percentage and 141 wins are best in Creighton volleyball's modern history. Added with her 112 wins in three years at Kirkwood Community College, Booth owns 253 career victories, an average of 23 wins per season.

In eight seasons, Booth has coached 11 first-team and eight second-team all-MVC picks, while also recruiting and coaching eight MVC All-Freshman Team honorees. Booth's teams have also won eight straight AVCA Team Academic Awards while placing 22 members on the MVC Scholar-Athlete Team in that time, including 2006 CoSIDA Academic All-American Emily Greisch.

Creighton's 2010 season saw the Jays fight back from a slow start to finish third in the Missouri Valley Conference. Creighton reached the MVC Tournament finals for the first time after beating Wichita State in the semifinals, which helped secure a much-deserved at-large bid. Creighton then defeated No. 16 Iowa State in five sets in the first round of the NCAA Tournament, making the Bluejays the lone MVC representative to reach the second round. Megan Bober was named first-team all-MVC and all-Central Region, going on to earn honorable-mention All-America accolades.

The 2008 Bluejay squad finished in sole possession of second place for the first time in program history after going 15-3 in league play. Playing the most difficult non-conference schedule in program history, Creighton finished 18-9 overall and had the second-best RPI of any team to not receive an NCAA bid.

That club saw Korie Lebeda close her career as Creighton 's all-time assist leader, while Jessica Houts was named MVC Defensive Player of the Year and earned AVCA Honorable-Mention All-America accolades. Omaha product Amanda Cvejdlik joined Lebeda and Houts on the all-MVC First Team, while libero Bianca Rivera was a second-team all-Valley selection.

Creighton's 2007 team finished 21-10 and tied for second in the MVC with a 14-4 record. The Jays became the first team in history to rally from an 0-2 deficit to win at UNI, and hosted a record-setting crowd (13,081) at CenturyLink Center Omaha. Lebeda set a Creighton record for career assists, Rivera a record for single-season digs, and Kelly Goc a season and career mark for hitting percentage. Goc would also become the program's first honorable-mention All-American on the court.

Booth's 2006 team won a school-record 21 matches, picking up in-season tournament titles at Montana State and Middle Tennessee, and reached the MVC Tournament semifinals. They also took a set from eventual national champion Nebraska and picked up three wins over long-time nemesis Illinois State as well as a victory at Wichita State.

The 2005 campaign was highlighted by the program's first-ever win at Northern Iowa, a win over Big East power Marquette, and the title at the San Diego State Invitational. The Jays would finish 16-14.

Kirsten Bernthal Booth

Booth's 2004 club won a then-record 18 matches while also picking up tournament titles at events hosted by New Mexico and Missouri. Creighton was also the only club in the MVC to beat the regular-season and tourney champ, Wichita State, in 2004.

In 2003, Booth inherited a team that went 3-23 prior to her arrival and improved that nearly identical squad to a 12-18 mark in her debut season at Creighton. That fall, the Bluejays helped pave the foundation for a promising future by signing five Nebraska products that composed one of the nation's most-heralded recruiting classes.

Booth has proven to be a popular coach among her players and within the Omaha community, which is a key factor in the team's record crowds, ranking among the top 40 nationally each of the last five seasons.

On the court, Booth was an all-state setter in high school at Lincoln (Neb.) East and conference MVP in college at Truman State.

Off the court, she earned Academic All-American honors and was named the 1997 Missouri NCAA Woman of the Year.

Prior to coming to Creighton, Booth went a combined 112-41 in three seasons at Kirkwood Community College in Cedar Rapids, Iowa. All three of her teams won at least 36 matches. Her first team reached the NJCAA finals before falling to St. Clair College. Her second team placed fourth nationally and her final club won 39 matches and had seven players earn academic all-conference honors. Twice, she was named District Coach of the Year.

In addition to her coaching responsibilities, she served as the school's human resource coordinator, where she was in charge of staff development and wellness for all faculty and staff at Kirkwood.

Booth served as a volunteer coach with the University of Iowa in the fall of 1997, helping to run drills and scout opponents. The following spring, she served as interim head coach while running practice and doing other assorted administrative tasks. She later earned her master's degree in higher education administration with an emphasis in athletic administration from Iowa in 2000.

As an undergrad, Booth's teams at Truman State went 101-54 with her running the offense at setter. She was named the Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletic Association Freshman of the Year in 1993, and earned all-MIAA accolades her final three seasons as well. She capped off her career in 1996 by earning MIAA Player of the Year honors and setting new school records for assists in a season (1,662) and career (6,077), the latter of which ranked third in NCAA history at the Division II level when she graduated. She remains among Truman's all-time leaders for digs (1,410), aces (127) and blocks (230) and will be inducted into Truman State's Athletic Hall of Fame in October.

She was also a member of the Student Senate at Truman State, where she graduated magna cum laude with a degree in communications.

Growing up, Booth excelled in both tennis and volleyball at Lincoln East High School, where she is a member of the school's Athletic Hall of Fame. In tennis, she was a three-time All-American and two-time state champion at No. 1 singles. She was also a second-team all-state volleyball player.

Booth and her husband, Erik, reside in Omaha. The couple has three daughters: Reese (6), Hayden (4) and Berkeley (born in April).

Year-by-Year Under Kirsten Bernthal Booth

2010 (21-12, 13-5 MVC, Final RPI of 32)
Creighton's best season in program history sees the Bluejays make their first NCAA Tournament, upset No. 16 Iowa State, and coach Kirsten Bernthal Booth claim National Coach of the Year honors from CVU.com. Creighton finished third in the MVC, the nation's No. 6-ranked conference, and then broke down another barrier by reaching its first conference tournament final. The Jays earn an at-large bid, beating Iowa State in five sets, before falling at No. 12 Minnesota to end the year. Sophomore setter Megan Bober is named first-team all-MVC and honorable-mention All-American as part of a balanced squad that ranked second nationally in digs per set (18.94 dps.).

2009 (14-17, 10-8 MVC, Final RPI of 86)
Creighton opens the D.J. Sokol Arena inside the Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center, setting a school record with 10 home wins. Creighton beats No. 25 Wichita State on Oct. 2 for its first win over a ranked opponent ever, and hosts the Missouri Valley Conference Tournament for the first time at year's end. The team overcomes a 3-8 non-conference mark with a fourth-place finish in the MVC. Jessica Houts is named first-team all-MVC to lead a Creighton defense that ranked third nationally in blocks per set.

2008 (18-9, 15-3 MVC, Final RPI of 46)
Once again Creighton narrowly misses an NCAA bid, finishing with the second-best RPI of any team left out of the field. The Jays dropped key five-set matches to No. 21 LSU and UAB early in the year and a chance to pick up some key wins was lost when a tournament was cancelled due to a hurricane in Texas. Creighton cruises through the league with a best-ever 15-3 mark, including a 3-0 sweep of UNI on the last weekend of the year, to finish alone in second-place and set a program record with an eighth straight win. However, the Bluejays dropped a five-set match to UNI in the MVC Tournament semifinals. Jessica Houts is named MVC Defensive Player of the Year and honorable-mention All-American and joined teammates Korie Lebeda and Amanda Cvejdlik on the All-MVC First Team.

2007 (21-10, 14-4 MVC, Final RPI of 56)
Creighton does not receive an NCAA Tournament at-large bid despite wrapping up a second straight 21-10 campaign. The Jays tie for second in the MVC but despite one of the nation's top-15 toughest non-conference schedules, aren't among four MVC teams selected to the NCAA's. Kelly Goc and Korie Lebeda both repeat as first-team All-Valley picks, with Goc also named an honorable-mention All-American. Allie Oelke is MVC Freshman of the Year, while libero Bianca Rivera sets new single-season dig marks. Creighton averages a record 1,860 fans per match, hosting more than 13,000 at CenturyLink Center Omaha for a Sept. 2 contest against Cal Poly.

2006 (21-10, 12-6 MVC, Final RPI of 57)
Creighton's first team to win 20 or more matches ranks among the national leaders in attendance as well. A five-set road win at Wichita State and exciting four-set match against eventual national champion Nebraska before more than 12,000 fans prove the program has reached unprecedented heights. Kelly Goc and Korie Lebeda are both named first-team All-Valley as the Jays beat three teams that reached the NCAA Tournament.

2005 (16-14, 10-8 MVC, Final RPI of 124)
A road win at Northern Iowa highlights a 16-14 season. Leah Ratzlaff repeats her All-MVC honors and finishes 12th in league history in career kills. Freshman Korie Lebeda led the MVC with a school-record 13.34 assists per set and was joined by talented classmates Jessica Houts and Amanda Cvejdlik.

2004 (18-11, 10-8 MVC, Final RPI of 95)
A then-school-record seven-match winning streak that included wins at Missouri, New Mexico and Iowa helped Creighton set a record with 18 wins. Leah Ratzlaff is first-team All-MVC, while Carolyn Decker and Kelly Goc are named to the MVC's All-Freshman Team.

2003 (12-18, 9-9 MVC, Final RPI of 170)
Though she has virtually the same personnel, Booth's first team improves its win total by nine wins to finish 12-18. The season marks the program's move to the Omaha Civic Auditorium, and attendance records fall. Single-season school records were set for kills (Leah Ratzlaff), digs (Janeen Piller), blocks (Ashley Williams) and assists (Brittany Coleman).

Assistant Coaches

Angie Oxley Behrens

A former national champion and four-year starter at the University of Nebraska, Angie Oxley Behrens returns for her ninth season as an assistant coach at Creighton. An original member of Kirsten Bernthal Booth's staff, she is the longest tenured assistant coach in program history.

Behrens works closely with Creighton's outside hitters while also assisting with scouting and recruiting.

The last eight years have seen the Creighton team record its top six single-season kill totals all-time, as well as the top five individual single-season marks that were set by Leah Ratzlaff, Alicia Runge and Kelly Goc.

Behrens has also trained four players to a spot on the MVC's All-Freshman team, middle blockers Goc (2004) and Jessica Houts (2005) as well as outside hitters Carolyn Decker (2004) and Allie Oelke (2007). Oelke became the program's first player named Valley Freshman of the Year as well.

Behrens has seen Creighton go 141-101 in her eight completed seasons on the bench.

While at NU, Behrens won three Big 12 titles, was named 1997 Big 12 Freshman of the Year and was chosen as the University's female student-athlete of the year in 2001 after leading the Cornhuskers to a 34-0 mark and national title in the fall of 2000 as a senior

She closed her career as the NU's all-time digs leader with 1,086.

In the classroom, Behrens was a Chancellor's Scholar and four-time Highest Honors Distinction Medal honoree. She also was a four-year academic All-Big 12 selection, a recipient of an NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship and one of 10 finalists for the 2001 NCAA Woman of the Year. She was also a member of the Mortar Board Honor Society, Pi Lambda Theta Honor Society, Golden Key, 2000 Homecoming Royalty Court and the Dean's List.

Along with her coaching duties, Behrens helps organize Creighton's volleyball camps in addition to her role in the Bluejay compliance office.

Behrens and her husband, Matt, were married in June of 2006. The couple resides in Lincoln with their son, Logan (1).

Tom Mendoza

Tom Mendoza begins his second year as an assistant coach at Creighton, after helping the Jays reach unprecedented heights in his first campaign.

Mendoza serves as the program's recruiting coordinator, and aids with practice, scouting and other facets of the program. He also works directly with Creighton's setters and middle blockers.

He was hired at Creighton in June of 2010 after spending the 2009 season at the University of Evansville. While with the Purple Aces, Mendoza worked with the setters, outside hitters and primary passers. He also recruited for the Purple Aces program.

"The number one thing I look for when hiring is high character," said Kirsten Bernthal Booth, upon his hiring. "Tom is a high character person in addition to being a fantastic coach. He was an outstanding collegiate player and we look forward to him bringing in new training ideas to enhance our team."

Mendoza, a native of Buffalo Grove, Ill., arrived at UE after spending two seasons as the volunteer assistant at Michigan State. While at Michigan State, Mendoza and the Spartans appeared in the NCAA Sweet 16 in 2007. He also served on the Michigan State volleyball summer camp staff in 2007 and 2008 and was the director of Spartan Session volleyball camps and clinics.

A three-year letterwinner in volleyball at Newman University and a one-year letterwinner at Lewis University, Mendoza had an outstanding playing career. He was a 10-time Mid-America Men's Volleyball Intercollegiate Conference Setter of the Week and was a three-time all-conference selection. During his playing career, he was also named a NAIA All-American.

Mendoza served as the head coach of the Spartan Junior 16 Girls club team that finished first in the Michigan Power League. He was also the head coach for the Juggernaut Volleyball Club in Wheat Ridge, Colo., and the Sports Performance 15 Elite Boys that earned fifth place at the Junior Olympic Nationals.

Mendoza received his bachelor's degree in management information systems from Lewis University in Romeoville, Ill.

He is single and resides in Omaha.

Amanda (Gates) Sjuts

Former University of Nebraska middle blocker Amanda (Gates) Sjuts enters her second season as a volunteer assistant at Creighton.

Sjuts' primary responsibilities are helping with practices -- specifically training middle blockers -- as well as some administrative tasks.

A native of Columbus, Neb., she competed at Nebraska from 2005-08 under her maiden name of Amanda Gates. She enjoyed a decorated career with the Huskers as part of a senior class that went 127-8 over four years as the Cornhuskers won the national title in 2006, were NCAA runners-up in 2005, reached the NCAA Tournament semifinals in 2008 and the NCAA quarterfinals in 2007.

In 2008, she was named a CoSIDA/ESPN The Magazine First Team Academic All-American in addition to honorable-mention All-Big 12 accolades while serving as a Husker tri-captain. She was a recipient of Postgraduate Scholarships from both the NCAA and Big 12 Conference, a two-time first-team Academic All-Big 12 pick and was a nine-time selection to the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll.

The Missouri Valley Conference

From early beginnings to its current standing on the map of college athletics, the Missouri Valley Conference continues to be proactive as The Valley enters its 105th year in 2011-12. The nation's second-oldest NCAA Division I conference is a leader in college athletics and is one of the nation's most progressive conferences.

The Missouri Valley Conference enters a new decade facing a rapidly changing environment in NCAA Division I athletics as conference expansion and realignment swept the nation in the summer of 2010. Although The Valley was untouched, the league will remain vigilant in monitoring changes or potential changes in other conferences that might impact membership, or present opportunities for expansion.

The Valley brand remains very strong, both regionally and nationally, and the great athletic tradition of The Valley remains a compelling force in recruiting student-athletes and in marketing all the MVC programs.

Men's basketball continues to be the engine that drives Valley athletic programs. With UNI's NCAA Sweet 16 appearance in 2010, the league has had four different Sweet 16 teams since 2006, and The Valley is the only non-BCS league with more than two different Sweet 16 teams in that span. The State Farm MVC Tournament continues to be a spectacular showcase for the league, and the MVC has extended the tournament agreement with the Scottrade Center that will keep Arch Madness in St. Louis through at least 2013. During the 2011 State Farm MVC Championship, the league surpassed 1 million in total attendance for the event, now in its 22nd year.

Last year, the league set a record with 12 postseason victories in men's basketball, as five different teams picked up at least one postseason win – a league first. Wichita State became the first MVC NIT champion since 1982, winning five games, including four against BCS-member schools.

While the success of men's basketball has received the greatest attention, the overall performance of league teams in virtually every sport continues to raise the national profile of the conference.

In women's basketball, five teams earned postseason berths, while 2011 marked the 12th-straight season that the Valley earned at least three postseason bids. UNI made its second consecutive NCAA Tournament trip after becoming just the fourth league team to win back-to-back State Farm MVC Tournament titles. The Conference remains committed to keeping the tournament at a neutral site at the Family Arena in St. Charles as establishing a neutral site remains a huge part of the overall efforts to improve women's basketball in The Valley.

In volleyball, a league-high four teams were invited to the 2010 NCAA Volleyball Championship, marking the fifth-straight year that multiple teams were invited to the Dance. UNI finished the season ranked No. 14, following its second straight 18-0 conference season.

In baseball, Creighton represented the league in the NCAA Tournament, as the Bluejays swept both the regular-season title and tournament titles. Although the league only received one NCAA Tournament bid, four teams ended the year in the Top 75 of the RPI, and the league ranked No. 7 in the conference RPI rankings.

In softball, two teams represented the league in the NCAA Tournament for the 11th time in conference history, as Illinois State and Missouri State advanced. Missouri State became just the second host in the history of the MVC to win the tournament, while both ISU and MSU went 1-2 in NCAA Tournament action.

In men's soccer, Creighton returned to the NCAA Championship after a one-year hiatus as the Bluejays joined State Farm MVC Tournament champion Bradley in the NCAA field. Creighton has qualified for 18 of the past 19 NCAA Championships, while The Valley has had two or more teams earn a spot in the field in each of the past four years.

Meanwhile, the success of The Valley television package is one of the great stories in the league. The MVC Television Network has blossomed into a revenue-generating vehicle and The Valley's most visible marketing tool. Also, The Valley is making video-streaming a major focus as it enters the third year of a three-year plan to upgrade the production and marketing of both institutionally-produced and conference-produced webcasts.

During the tenure of Doug Elgin, The Valley's ninth and longest-tenured commissioner, The Valley has been aggressive in hosting NCAA events in St. Louis. Since 1998, the MVC served as host for a staggering nine NCAA tournament events in the 13-year period, which has made St. Louis one of the most frequent stops on the NCAA Tournament trail. The Valley hosted Women's Final Fours in 2001 and 2009, and the Men's Final Four in 2005.

The seeds for the creation of the conference were planted by eight administrators representing five institutions, who met at the Midland Hotel in Kansas City, Mo., on Jan. 12, 1907. The five schools which formed the Missouri Valley Intercollegiate Athletic Association were Washington University of St. Louis, and the state universities of Iowa, Kansas, Missouri and Nebraska. Two months after the initial meeting, two more schools -- Drake University and Iowa State College -- were admitted.

In the fall of 1907, basketball became the first competitive sport. Today, the Missouri Valley Conference sponsors the following sports: baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country and track & field (indoor and outdoor), men's and women's golf, men's and women's soccer, softball, women's swimming and diving, men's and women's tennis and women's volleyball.

Athletic accomplishments include four NCAA national basketball championships, 16 trips to the NCAA Final Four, a 1989 national baseball championship and 19 College World Series qualifiers. The league owns a total of 30 postseason national team championships, including Wichita State's men's basketball NIT title in 2011. In 2001, Missouri State added to The Valley women's accomplishments, as the Lady Bears advanced to the Women's Basketball Final Four in St. Louis. Creighton (2004) and Missouri State (2005) have claimed national championships (WNIT) in women's basketball, while MSU also has a 1992 NCAA Women's Final Four appearance, and Creighton (2003), Drake (1999) and Illinois State (2009) have made semifinal trips to the WNIT postseason tournament.

Indeed, the inclusion of women's programs under The Valley banner has provided a boost. The Gateway Collegiate Athletic Conference -- which began in 1982 -- merged with the Missouri Valley Conference and was unveiled as part of the new conference on July 1, 1992.

While the inclusion of women's sports under a comprehensive athletic umbrella is a recent development in the league's storied history, over the years, Valley student-athletes and coaches have become household names during the league's illustrious history, both during their collegiate careers and, for some, professional careers.

In fact, The Valley began honoring that tradition in the summer of 1997, when the conference began its athletics Hall of Fame. Hersey Hawkins of Bradley, Larry Bird of Indiana State, Wes Unseld of Louisville, Coach Henry Iba of Oklahoma State, Dave Stallworth of Wichita State, Ed Macauley of Saint Louis and Oscar Robertson of Cincinnati were members of the initial induction class. Currently, nearly 70 former players, coaches and alums dot the league's Hall of Fame.

Men's basketball, perhaps, has the league's most storied tradition with the likes of Hall of Famers Bird and Robertson, but The Valley has also produced national-caliber student-athletes in its other sponsored sports. In 2001, Missouri State's Jackie Stiles became the first Valley woman to earn the Honda-Broderick Cup, given to the nation's top female collegiate student-athlete.

In the fall of 1997, Creighton's Johnny Torres was named the collegiate male soccer player of the year for a second straight year, while SMU's Luchi Gonzalez (2001) and Tulsa's Ryan Pore (2004) have also earned a National Player of the Year honor in men's soccer. Meanwhile league member Wichita State has produced three national collegiate players of the year in baseball, including Joe Carter (1981), Phil Stephenson (1982) and Darren Dreifort (1993).

League members include Bradley, Creighton, Drake, Evansville, Illinois State, Indiana State, Missouri State, Northern Iowa, Southern Illinois, and Wichita State. Central Arkansas and Southern Illinois-Edwardsville are affiliate members in men's soccer.

2010 Recap

Creighton's 2010 season will long be remembered as a season of breakthroughs that helped set the stage for future success.

For most programs, it's a gradual process for teams to reach their first MVC Tournament final, reach their first NCAA Tournament, or notch their first NCAA Tournament victory. For Creighton, those three milestone accomplishments took place in the span of seven days, leaving a lasting legacy that future teams will strive to duplicate, and exceed, in the years to come.

Creighton finished the 2010 season with a 21-12 record, and third place finish in the Valley standings with a 13-5 record in the league race. The 21 victories matched the program's modern school record, and included some of the program's best wins in recent years.

Expectations coming into 2010 were mixed. The program was coming off a 14-17 record, its first losing record since 2003. Jessica Houts and Sarah Schulze, two four-year starters, had graduated and left a huge hole to fill. The Bluejays were picked fourth in the preseason MVC poll, a testament to the program's seven straight top-five finishes.

An injury to star middle blocker Laurel Sanford midway through the team's season-opening victory over San Francisco contributed to some early struggles. The Jays lost four-set matches to Lipscomb and Kansas to close the Bluejay Invitational. Sanford was also held out of an Aug. 31 match vs. No. 7 Nebraska, which saw a sellout crowd of 2,514 fans pack D.J. Sokol Arena in the Huskers first visit to campus since 1980.

Creighton took its 1-3 record to St. Louis, Mo., the second week of the year. The Jays swept host Saint Louis, avenging a 2009 loss to one of the Atlantic-10's top teams. A heartbreaking five-set loss to Iowa preceded a sweep over Wake Forest that gave Creighton a second-place showing in St. Louis.

The Jays carried that momentum the following weekend to the Marquette Invitational. Another two-point, five-set loss opened the weekend before the Jays responded with a 3-0 sweep over Marquette and 3-1 win over preseason Mid-American Conference division favorite Central Michigan.

Little did the Jays know that the impressive 3-0 victories over Saint Louis, Marquette and Wake Forest would pay huge dividends on Selection Sunday.

Armed with a 5-5 record heading into league play, the Jays took to the road to face a 9-1 Southern Illinois team and a 10-1 Evansville club. The Jays swept both opponents, an eye-opening weekend that lifted their record to 7-5 on the year.

The Jays returned home to host preseason league favorite Northern Iowa. The Jays split the first two sets and had a set point opportunity in the third, before eventually dropping a 3-1 match. Creighton would beat Bradley the following evening to start a five-match win streak. Capping the win streak was back-to-back five-set victories over league heavyweights Missouri State and Wichita State. Those wins, more than anything else, gave the team the confidence it needed to know it could compete for a league title.

2010 Creighton Bluejays

Creighton stubbed its toe in a loss at Drake on Oct. 16th, finishing the first half of the league slate tied for second place with a 7-2 mark. The Jays would open the back nine with a sweep at Bradley before dropping a pair of 27-25 sets in a 3-0 loss at UNI.

Creighton returned home to beat Indiana State and Illinois State, only to drop yet another five-set match by two points, this time against Wichita State. Still stinging from that near-miss, the Jays would be swept again the next evening at Missouri State.

Creighton closed its season with three straight home wins, beating Drake, Evansville and Southern Illinois to end the conference slate 13-5 and clinch the third seed in the Valley Tournament.

For the second straight year at the Valley Tournament, Creighton would open with Drake. And for the second straight year, Creighton dispatched the Bulldogs with ease to open league tourney action.

Creighton advanced to play Wichita State in the tournament semifinals. Creighton had reached the semi's five times previously, and lost each time to Northern Iowa. Finally on the other side of the bracket as the Panthers, the Jays took advantage. Creighton cruised to a 2-0 lead and would eliminate the Shockers in four sets, setting the stage for the program's first tournament final and giving Creighton its 20th win of the fall.

In the final, Creighton would face tournament host and longtime nemesis Northern Iowa. The Jays battled the No. 11 Panthers closely, only to fall in four sets. It was the sixth straight season that UNI had eliminated Creighton from the Valley Tournament.

The finals appearance, combined with an RPI of 29 on Selection Sunday, left those in the program hopeful of a first-ever NCAA bid. The team gathered privately at D.J. Sokol Arena to watch the show, and erupted when their name appeared on the screen.

Creighton would face No. 16 Iowa State in the first round of the tournament, in a match played in Minneapolis, Minn. The Cyclones, one of the top programs in the Midwest, were coached by Omaha native Christy Johnson-Lynch and featured three returning All-Americans.

Creighton showed no signs of nerves in its tournament debut. The Jays went up 9-4 to start the contest, but would eventually fall behind 24-21. The Jays incredibly saved three set points, then went on a run of their own to win a 27-25 first set when Heather Thorson and Megan Bober teamed to stuff Cyclone All-American Victoria Henson on set point.

The teams would alternate wins in the next three sets, setting the stage for a winner-take-all fifth set. The Jays trailed 4-2 early before eventually taking a 5-4 lead on consecutive blocks by Sanford and Bober. The Jays would take the lead for good at 8-6 when it forced Henson into back-to-back attack errors as the team's switched benches.

Creighton continued to build on its momentum, going ahead 12-8 on an Alicia Runge kill. The teams then traded six straight sideouts, getting a kill by Sanford to cap the 15-11 Bluejay victory that will forever rank as one of the top wins in program history.

The reward for beating Iowa State was a second-round match-up with sub-regional host No. 12 Minnesota. Creighton played a strong match against the Gophers, but each set saw Minnesota pull away late to claim a 25-19, 30-28, 25-20 triumph.

Runge led Creighton on the season in kills with 463, while Sanford (115) and Bober (114) finished as the top blockers. Two women who shared the libero role, Nayka Benitez (537) and Julianne Mandolfo (531) both had more than 530 digs, with Benitez also topping the team with 39 aces.

Bober was named first-team all-Valley, first-team all-Region, and an honorable-mention All-American. Runge and Sanford were second-team all-league picks, while Mandolfo was an all-freshman pick. Additionally, Kirsten Bernthal Booth was named National Coach of the Year by CVU.com.

Digs and Digs Per Set

A dig is awarded when a player passes the ball that has been attacked by the opposition. Digs are given only when players receive an attacked ball and it is kept in play, not when a ball is brought up off a "put back" (blocked ball).
Digs Per Set = Digs / Sets Played

Block Solos and Block Assists

A block solo is awarded when a single player blocks the ball into the opposition's court leading directly to a point. That player must be the only blocker attempting to block the ball.
A block assist is awarded when two or three players block the ball into the opponent's court for a point. Each player blocking receives a block assist even if only one player actually makes contact with the ball.

Head Coach History

Ben Guiliano

Ben Guiliano helped lay the groundwork for Creighton volleyball as the man in charge when Creighton reinstated volleyball prior to the 1994 season. Guiliano guided the Bluejays from 1994-96 and posted a 25-58 record in that time.

Howard Wallace

Howard Wallace took over prior to the 1997 season and led the Bluejays to four Missouri Valley Conference Tournament appearances in his six years on the job. In 1997, Wallace was named the MVC's Co-Coach of the Year after guiding the Jays to a third-place finish in league play. He resigned Dec. 10, 2002, with a 68-94 record in six seasons on the Bluejay bench.

Kirsten Bernthal Booth

Kirsten Bernthal Booth became the program's third head coach with her Feb. 3, 2003, appointment. She owns a record of 141-101 entering 2011 and is the school's all-time leader in wins (141) and winning percentage (.583). Booth also ranks ninth in MVC history in winning percentage.

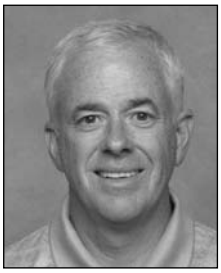
Creighton Director of Athletics and President



Director of Athletics Bruce Rasmussen

The dean of MVC Athletic Directors and a 2008 inductee into the Omaha Sports Hall of Fame, Bruce Rasmussen enters his 18th year as director of athletics, and 32nd overall at Creighton University.

During Rasmussen's tenure, Creighton has risen to prominence with its success on-and-off the field, impressive facilities and record-breaking fundraising efforts.

For evidence, look no further than three recent projects that continue to change the area athletics scene for years to come. The Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center and D.J. Sokol Arena opened in 2009 and immediately gave Creighton's women's basketball and volleyball teams a top-notch facility to call home. East of the Ryan Athletic Center will be Creighton's new student recreation center that was named the Rasmussen Center in his honor and will stand as one of the centerpieces on the Creighton campus. Last but not least is the completion of TD Ameritrade Park Omaha, home to Bluejay baseball and the College World Series, which opened in 2011 to rave reviews.

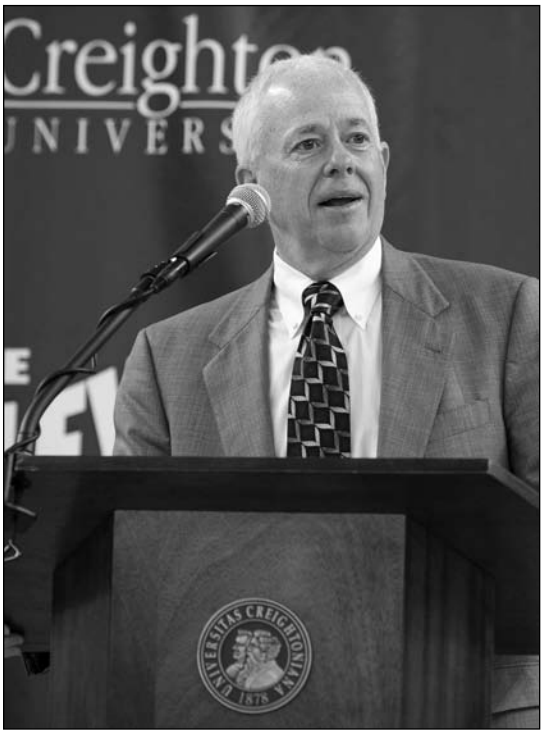
Those projects add to an overhaul in the school's athletic facilities over the past decade, which has also seen Creighton begin play at two of the finest facilities nationwide -- Michael G. Morrison, S.J., Stadium (soccer) and CenturyLink Center Omaha (men's basketball).

Since Rasmussen assumed the role of athletics director, Creighton has won 22 regular-season and 29 conference tournament titles, which have helped lead to 56 postseason appearances. The Bluejays are the only school in the 105-year history of the Missouri Valley Conference to make 14 straight men's basketball postseasons, and have made the NCAA Tourney in men's soccer in 18 of the past 19 years.

Creighton has also been recognized with the MVC All-Academic Award in six of the last seven seasons, including a record 3.35 GPA last spring by student-athletes.

The Creighton softball team has made six NCAA Tournament appearances in the last nine years, while the men's soccer squad has reached 18 of the past 19 NCAA Tournaments.

A member of the College World Series of Omaha, Inc., Executive Committee, Rasmussen continues to play a vital role in Creighton and the city of Omaha remaining as host of the College World Series. He was one of six individuals on the CWS Oversight Committee that helped decide the location for the new downtown TD Ameritrade Park Omaha, which will help keep the CWS in town for another 25 years. With Creighton serving as host, the CWS established new attendance records in six of the final nine years at Rosenblatt Stadium.



Rasmussen was one of four regional winners from the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) to take home a 2004 GeneralSports TURF Systems AD of the Year Award, and in 2010 was again honored with an Under Armour AD of the Year award by the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics.

In terms of academics, Creighton's reputation as one of the nation's top academic institutions is reflected in the success the Bluejay student-athletes have had in the classroom during Rasmussen's service as athletics director. Creighton's baseball, men's basketball, women's basketball, volleyball, men's and women's cross country, women's soccer and men's and women's tennis teams all have received national awards for their academic success. Bluejay student-athletes consistently own GPAs of 3.25 or above.

Creighton's primary annual athletics fundraising events are the Bluejay Bash and the Bluejay Jamboree. Under Rasmussen's leadership, each of these events continues to raise record-breaking funds for Creighton athletics. Most notably, the 2010 Jamboree generated more than $398,000 through its gourmet dinner, raffle and auction.

Rasmussen accepted the associate athletics director position in 1992 after a 12-year run as the winningest coach in Creighton women's basketball history (196-147), culminating in the program's historic 1991-92 season.

The 1992 Western Athletic Conference Coach of the Year, Rasmussen led the 1991-92 Bluejay women to a program-record 28 wins (28-4), the WAC regular-season and tournament championships and a first-round NCAA Tournament victory in the program's first-ever trip to the "Big Dance." With that 28-4 record in 1991-92, Rasmussen completed his college coaching career with a 196-147 record, good for a .571 winning percentage.

After serving as associate athletics director for two years, 1992-94, Rasmussen was named athletics director on Aug. 1, 1994.

A native of Webster City, Iowa, Rasmussen and his wife, Jill, have five children: Megan (26), David (24), John (20), Katy (16) and Grace (13).

President Timothy R. Lannon, S.J.

Timothy R. Lannon, S.J., is Creighton University's 24th president. He is the first Creighton University alumnus to head the University.

Fr. Lannon became president on July 1, 2011, after having served eight years as the 26th president of Saint Joseph's University in Philadelphia, where he raised Saint Joseph's academic and national profile. Previously, he served as associate executive vice president and vice president for University Advancement at Marquette University.

Fr. Lannon serves on the boards of Marquette University, Santa Clara University, Boston College, and the Association of Jesuit Colleges and Universities (AJCU). He has studied, written and presented extensively on the topic of Catholic identity at American universities.

Fr. Lannon graduated from Creighton in 1973 with a bachelor's degree in mathematics, and was president of the Student Board of Governors. In addition to his undergraduate degree from Creighton, he holds two master's degrees from Weston Jesuit School of Theology (now Boston College School of Theology and Ministry); a doctorate in administration, planning and social policy from the Graduate School of Education at Harvard University; and a professional diploma from Fordham University.

A native of Mason City, Iowa, Fr. Lannon entered the Society of Jesus in 1977 and was ordained a priest in 1986. During his early years, he honed his educational and administrative skills as an assistant principal and instructor at several Jesuit institutions, as well as an admissions counselor at Creighton. Later, he was president of Creighton Preparatory School, from 1988 to 1995. Fr. Lannon received Creighton University's College of Arts and Sciences Alumni Merit Award in 1993 and has been inducted into Creighton Prep's Hall of Fame. As an undergraduate, he received Creighton's highest student honor, the Spirit of Creighton Award in 1973.

History of Billy Bluejay

"Billy Bluejay" is the official mascot of the Creighton University athletics department. The Bluejays were originally depicted by a "birdwatcher's bluejay," but that was changed in 1941 when Joseph P. Murphy, a Creighton alumnus, designed the current version of Billy, one with a more human stance and expression.

Prior to 1924, Creighton teams were referred to as the "Hilltoppers," but that name lost favor because at least six other teams in the country also used the same nickname. The Omaha Bee assisted the University's Athletic Board and Alumni Association in finding a new nickname by asking readers to submit possibilities. After reviewing 200 entries, the Athletic Board decided upon "Bluejays" because of the school's colors, blue and white.

Today, Creighton remains the only NCAA Division I athletics program known officially as the Bluejays.

Academic and Athletic Success

- Creighton's student-athletes combined for a 3.35 GPA last spring. The student-athletes also own a 3.33 cumulative GPA, which equals the school's best mark ever.
- Creighton has won the MVC All-Academic Award in six of the past seven seasons.
- The NCAA recently introduced a new tool for the evaluation of the academic quality of participating programs. The Academic Progress Report is intended to gauge the progress student-athletes are making to degree completion and graduation. In the spring of 2011, Creighton had four teams post multi-year APR scores in the top 10 percent of all squads in their respective sports: men's cross country, women's cross country, women's golf and women's volleyball. Creighton's average APR scores of 985 was easily the best figure in the Missouri Valley Conference.
- 105 of Creighton's 237 student-athletes (44.3 percent) earned a 3.50 GPA or better during the spring 2011 semester. Eight of these athletes were Creighton volleyball players.
- Creighton had 135 student-athletes make the Dean's List at least once last year, including 73 student-athletes who earned the honor both semesters.
- Eighteen student-athletes (7.6 percent), including volleyball player Allie Oelke, earned perfect 4.00 GPAs during the spring 2011 semester.
- 180 student-athletes (75.9 percent) earned a 3.00 GPA or better in the spring 2011 semester.
- 11 teams (women's basketball, crew, men's cross country, women's cross country, men's golf, women's golf, women's soccer, softball, men's tennis, women's tennis and volleyball) had team GPAs of 3.15 or better and every team owns a cumulative GPA of 2.82 or better.
- Creighton received the 2011 American Volleyball Coaches Association Team Academic Award for having a team GPA of 3.45 last spring and a 3.42 cumulative GPA. Bluejay volleyball also won the award in 1998, 1999, 2004, 2005, 2006, 2007, 2008, 2009 and 2010.
- Creighton volleyball had four women (Allie Oelke, Alicia Runge, Megan Bober, Brooke Boggs) selected Academic All-District VII, the only school in a nine-state district with at least three honorees.
- Creighton owns 33 ESPN/CoSIDA Academic All-American honors. Last year sophomore baseball pitcher Ty Blach was named a third-team Academic All-American.

Creighton Volleyball Wins 2011 AVCA Team Academic Award

The 2010 Creighton University volleyball team was honored by the American Volleyball Coaches Association as a recipient of the 2011 AVCA Team Academic Award. Creighton previously won the award in 1998, 1999, 2004, 2005, 2006, 2007, 2008, 2009 and 2010.

The award, initiated in the 1992-93 academic year, honors teams that displayed excellence in the classroom by maintaining at least a 3.30 cumulative GPA. Ninety-two Division I schools qualified for the honor in 2010-11, including seven of the 10 schools from the Missouri Valley Conference.

Creighton is one of just seven schools to earn this award each of the past eight years, joining Bowling Green, Indiana State, Denver, Memphis, Toledo and Wichita State.

Last year Allie Oelke and Alicia Runge were named first-team choices on the Missouri Valley Conference Scholar-Athlete team, giving Creighton 17 such selections in the past eight seasons.

The Creighton volleyball team owned a 3.45 GPA last spring and owns an impressive cumulative team GPA of 3.42.
